Tony Rawson has been part of the CRC since 1970. Believing God had called him to ministry he served his local church in Swan Hill supporting succeeding pastors and eventually pastoring the church there himself.

In 2000 Tony and his family moved to the Ballarat church which had quite a number of credentialed pastors in the congregation and decided to re-launch himself as a visiting minister.

Since that date he has ministered in every state plus the ACT. For over 20 years he has travelled regularly to the Indian subcontinent preaching in evangelistic crusades and teaching at pastor's retreats. Tony will encourage your congregation to think evangelistically and loves to build people's faith inspiring church members to understand who God has made them in Christ. He is also keen to demonstrate the power gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Tony pilots his own light aircraft and is able to reach out of the way places in a short time. For the past 40 years he has supported himself and his family as a professional photographer.
