Specifications for use of the logo of CRC Churches International

The logo shown above is Copyright © 2012 National Council of the CRC Churches International and may only be used with permission.

Administration of use of the logo is conducted on behalf of the National Council by the Australian Office of CRC Churches International, 185 Frederick Road Seaton SA 5023.

Permission to use the logo on letterheads and office stationery, newsletters and promotion material is granted to all CRC Churches provided that the following conditions are met:

1. The logo may only be used by churches that are affiliated with CRC Churches International as defined by the constitutions of the State Councils of the Christian Revival Crusade.
2. The logo may be used on stationery, handbills, tracts and documents.
3. No alteration to aspect, dimensions or font typeface is permitted.
4. On stationery, the logo is situated at the top of the page.
5. On newsletters, handbills and tracts etc., the logo must be no less than 20 by 21mm.
6. On signage, the logo must be of a size that clearly identifies a connection with the CRC when seen from a reasonable distance.

Permission to use the logo electronically in Internet web pages is also granted to affiliated CRC churches as defined above. Only the logo supplied by the National Office of CRC Churches International Australia without alteration to colours, size, dimensions or fonts may be used.

Any other use of the logo is a breach of copyright.
